

Night 5-Paragraph Essay

Response to Literature Essay

A Response to Literature prompt asks you to take your own personal opinions and answer the prompt using examples from the literature to support your ideas. Address the following essay prompt in the form of a 5-Paragraph Essay. Be sure to include at least one quote (with proper citation) per body paragraph in order to support your ideas. You must also include at least three vocabulary words from your Night Vocabulary list (be sure to underline your vocabulary words in your essay, please). This essay should be typed, double spaced, standard 12-point font with a proper heading and at least 300 words (or a page-and-a-half to two pages—not including the heading). Remember to properly cite page numbers for each quote or example.

Throughout the memoir, it becomes apparent that Elie is losing faith in himself, in his fellow man, and in God. He shows this through his thoughts and his actions, and in his writing. Using examples from the story, explore the evidence that Elie has begun to lose faith in everything around him. Support your response with references from the text.
